

The current consolidation of media ownership by large corporations limits the right of free speech and facilitates the possibility of media control threatening the very foundations of our democracy.

I strongly oppose the upcoming broadcast by Sinclair of Stolen Honor, an obvious propaganda piece by the radical right of this country, on public airwaves.

Is this 2004 or 1984?